OFFICE

Section 1. Offices. - The principal office of the Corporation shall be located at The Beaufort, 5th Avenue cor. 23rd St., Bonifacio Global City, Taguig City. Subject to Banko Sentral ng Pilipinas approval the Corporation may open and maintain branch offices at such places within the Philippines as the Board of Directors may determine.

(Amended as of April 10 and 25 2014)

ARTICLE II

STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1. Place of Meeting. - All meetings of the stockholders whether regular or special shall be held whenever practicable in the principal office of the Corporation. The Board of Directors may fix a different place of the meeting within Metro Manila upon prior notice to the stockholders.

Section 2. Annual Meeting. - The annual meeting of the meetings of the stockholders shall be held on the third Friday of the month of April of each year if not a legal holiday, if such day is a legal holiday, then it shall be held on the next business day following.

At such meeting, the stockholders shall elect the members of the Board of Directors and may transact such other business and/or consider such other matters about which they have been given notice before such meeting.

Section 3. Special Meeting. - Special meetings of Stockholders for any purpose or purposes may be called by the Chairman or on the request of the majority of all members of the Board of Directors or on written request of the registered owners of at least a majority of the outstanding capital stock, but if the matter to be considered are those which under existing law, only shares of the stock entitled to vote may be voted, then a written request of the registered owners of at least a majority of the voting stock shall be sufficient.

Section 4. Notice of Meeting - Notice of meetings shall be sent to each stockholder of record of at least two (2) weeks prior to the meeting in the case of annual stockholders meetings and at least one (1) week prior to the meeting in case of special meeting. When the meeting of stockholders is adjourned to another time or place, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of adjourned meeting if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken.

Section 5. Form of Notice - Notices of the meetings shall be in writing containing the matters to be considered thereat and shall be mailed, postage prepaid or delivered in person by the Secretary on his duly authorized representatives to each stockholder entitled to vote thereat, at such address as may appear in the books of the Corporation or by publication in a newspaper of general circulation. The Board of Directors shall fix the date when the books of the Corporation will be closed, to determine who may be entitled to vote at the annual meeting. If the Board of Directors fails to designate the date, it shall be understood to be twenty (20) days before the annual meeting.

Section 6. Waiver of Notice - Stockholders of records may waive expressly or impliedly notice of any meetings, regular or special.

Section 7. Quorum - The registered owners of at least a majority of the outstanding capital stock present in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum to do business except in those cases where the Corporation Code provides a greater percentage vis-a vis the total outstanding capital stock.

Section 8. Effect of Absence of Quorum - If the stockholders of record present or represented at the meeting do not constitute a quorum, the stockholders therein shall have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time until the requisite number of the shares of stock that may be voted at such meeting shall be present.

Section 9. Proxy - Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of the stockholders may vote by proxy. For this purpose, the proxy instrument must be duly notarized as presented to the Corporate Secretary for inspection and record prior to the opening of said meeting.

1.5.1 An Independent Director is a person who, apart from his fees and shareholdings, has no business or relationship with the Corporation, which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the exercise of his independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a director. An Independent Director shall submit to the Corporate Secretary a certification confirming that he possesses all the qualifications and none of the disqualifications of an Independent Director at the time of his election and/or re-election as an Independent Director. (As amended by the Board of Directors and by the Stockholders during their respective meeting on January 6, 2012)

Section 2. Vacancy in the Board. - Any vacancy in the Board of Directors other than by removal by the stockholders or by expiration of term may be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors at a meeting especially called for the purpose, unless the Board, in its discretion, or where its number is reduced to less than a quorum, decides to call a stockholders' meeting for the purpose in which case vacancies shall be filled by a majority vote of the outstanding voting capital stock. The director so chosen shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

Section 3. Removal of Directors. - Directors may be removed at a stockholders' meeting duly called for that purpose in accordance with provisions of the Corporation Code. Vacancies thus created may be filled by the stockholders at the same meeting although the notice to the stockholders might have mentioned only the removal of the director(s).

Section 4, Meeting. - The Board of Directors shall hold a meeting for organizational purposes immediately after their election, of which no notice shall be required. Thereafter, the Board of Directors shall hold its regular meetings at least once every quarter of each calendar year on such dates shall be fixed by the Board of the principal office of the Corporation or at such other place as the Board may fix within the Philippines.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time by the Chairman or by the President or on the written request of at least a majority of the Directors. Only one day's notice shall be required for any meeting of the Board of Directors and can be made either orally or in writing.

Where there are participants who are not physically present either because they are located at different local or international places, the meeting may be held through teleconferencing or videoconferencing:

1. The Secretary of the meeting shall assume the following responsibilities:

a. to safeguard the integrity of the meeting via tele/videoconferencing

b. to find good tele/videoconference equipment/facilities

c. to record the proceedings and prepare the minutes of the meeting

d. to store for safekeeping and mark the tape recording/s and/or other electronic recording mechanism as part of the records of the corporation

2. The Secretary shall send out the notices of the meeting to all directors in accordance with the manner of giving notice as stated in the by-laws.

3. The notice shall include the following:

a. Inquiry on whether the director will attend physically or through tele/videoconferencing;

b. Contact number/s of the Secretary and office staff whom the director may call to notify and state whether he shall be physically present or attend through tele/videoconferencing;

c. Agenda of the meeting;

d. All documents to be discussed in the meeting, including attachments, shall be numbered and duly marked by the Secretary in such a way that all the directors, physically or electronically present, can easily follow, refer to the documents and participate in the meeting.

4. If the director chooses tele/videoconferencing, he shall give notice of at least five days prior to the scheduled meeting to the Secretary. The latter shall be informed of his contact number/s. In the same way, the Secretary shall inform the director concerned of the contact number/s he will call to join the meeting. The Secretary shall keep the records of the details, and on the date of the scheduled meeting, confirm and note such details as part of the minutes of the meeting.

5. In the absence of an arrangement, it is presumed that the director will physically attend the Board meeting.

6. The recording of the teleconferencing/videoconferencing shall be a condition sine qua non for these modes of meetings.

7. At the start of the scheduled meeting, a roll call shall be made by the Secretary. Every director and participant shall state, for the record, the following:

a. Full Name

b. Location

c. For those attending through tele/videoconferencing, he shall confirm that:

i. he can completely and clearly hear the others who can clearly hear him at the end of the line

ii. state whether he has received the agenda and all the materials for the meeting

iii. specify type of device used

Thereafter, the Secretary shall confirm and note the contact numbers being used by the directors and participants not physically present. After the roll call, the Secretary may certify the existence of a quorum.

8. All participants shall identify themselves for the record, before speaking and must clearly hear and/or see each other in the course of the meeting. If a person fails to identify himself, the Secretary shall quickly state the identity of the last speaker. If the person speaking is not physically present and the Secretary is not certain of the identity of the speaker, the Secretary must inquire to elicit a confirmation or correction.

If a motion is objected to and there is a need to vote and divide the Board, the Secretary should call the roll and note the vote of each director who should identify himself.

If a statement of a director/participant in the meeting via tele/videoconferencing is interrupted or garbled, the Secretary shall request for a repeat or reiteration, and if need be, the Secretary shall repeat what he heard the director/participant was saying for confirmation or correction.

9. The Secretary shall require all the directors who attended the meeting, whether personally or through tele/videoconferencing, to sign the minutes of the meeting to dispel all doubts on matters taken up during the meeting. (As amended by the Board of Directors and by the Stockholders during their respective meeting on January 6, 2012)

Section 5. Compensation and Per Diems of Directors and Corporate Secretary. - The members of the Board of Directors, as such directors, shall be entitled to compensation the amount of which shall be fixed by the Board but in no case shall their total yearly compensation, as such directors, exceed ten (10%) percent of the net income before income tax of the Corporation during the preceeding year. The members of the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee, and the Corporate Secretary shall be entitled to per diems for every attendance in Board or Executive Committee meetings, in such amounts as shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Powers. -- In addition to the powers and authority specified in these By-Laws, the Board of Directors may exercise all the powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful acts and things as are not, by law, directed or required to be exercised or done by the stockholders. The board may require any officer or employee to comply with certain requisites before such officer or employee enters upon the performance of his/her duties.

Section 7. Quorum. - A majority of the Directors shall constitute a quorum to do business, and every decision of the majority of the quorum duly assembled as a Board shall be valid as an act of the entire Board.

Section 8. Executive Committees - The Board of Directors may create an Executive Committee, the composition of which shall include not less than three members of the Board to be appointed by the Board. The Executive Committee, by a majority vote of all its members, and subject to such limitations as the Board may prescribe, is empowered to approved and/or implement any or all corporate acts within the competence of the Board except those acts expressly reserved by the Corporation Code to the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Other Committees. - The Board of Directors, by affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of its entire membership, may create such other committees as it may deem necessary and/or appropriate for the best interest of the Corporation, with such powers and duties as it may define.
